

ZEABORN is a growing group in the maritime sector. Since its foundation in 2013, we successfully built and acquired maritime companies and formed a global shipping group – delivering integrated services in the segments Commercial Management, Ship Management and Ship Owning.

Currently, the ZEABORN fleet under commercial management consists of approximately 80 vessels and for technical management approximately 160 vessels. Our goal is to further expand the fleet, built strategic partnerships and form a competitively strong group as to maximize the value-added for customers.

For our location in Hamburg, we are looking for a motivated and competent

Intern to join our Corporate Development team in the ZEABORN Holding.

ZEABORN's Corporate Development team reports directly to shareholders and support the decision making process in executing transactions and enabling for a smooth post-merger transition.

Your main task – direct support of experienced Project Managers in M&A and Post-Merger projects, e.g. in:

- Performing financial and commercial due diligence of target companies.
- Developing business plans and conducting synergy analyses.
- Developing and implementing post-merger integration concepts.
- Preparing deal reports and strategy papers for shareholders' decision-making.

What is in for you – gaining fundamental M&A skills in a dynamic team with a focus on developing business acumen, strong analytical, troubleshooting, problem-solving, and project management skills.

Your key qualifications for the above tasks are:

- Student or graduate (in Bachelor or Master Studies), preferably with a financial background.
- First working experiences – ideally with a big-four or management consultancy and/or in the shipping industry, e.g. based on intern- or apprenticeships.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills – in German and English language.
- Motivated and ambitious to become part of a professional and driven M&A team.

If the above mentioned teases you and applies to you, we are looking forward to your application:

- Concise motivation letter (2 pages).
- CV (max. 2 pages).
- Earliest date of entry.
- Send to: denise.laghai@zeaborn.com

If you have any further question, please contact Ms. Denise Laghai +49 40 356 24 1820.

---